Richard Michael "Dick" Dull
Director of Athletics

The year was 1975, and Richard Michael Dull, not one to wait on a moment forever, decided enough was enough.

He quit his job, a promising position as Attorney at Law with the USC National Senior Citizens Law Center, and accepted employment at Maryland.

As assistant business manager.

Starting over is often the best thing. "I had to admit to myself that I just wasn't that good a lawyer," he says now. "I worked very hard at the practice, but I realized I just wasn't that good."

Dick Dull has been making good ever since. Just six years after the career change, he had ascended to the top of the department and was named Maryland athletic director, succeeding Jim Kehoe. And as Dull begins his sixth academic year at the helm of one of the nation's most respected and successful programs, there is no denying the progression and commitment to excellence that has marked Terrapin athletics since his appointment in August, 1981.

Examples of that progression and commitment are abundant:

After a season of transition (1981) and a coaching change, the football team has won three straight Atlantic Coast Conference championships, appeared in four straight bowl games and gone 34-14 since 1982.

The basketball team has won 88 of 132 games since the 1982-83 season, captured an ACC title (1984) and played in four straight NCAA tournaments.

The athletic department has turned a substantial profit in each of the last two fiscal years, as Dull continues to mastermind a budget that reached $7 million in 1985.

The creation of an Academic Athletic Advisory Board, a university body of executives and assistants devoted to the success of the sports program both on and off the athletic fields. Through the AAAB, the number of full-time academic advisors in the athletic department has been increased to five, and Maryland finished second among ACC schools in honor roll student athletes in 1984-85.

At Dull's urging, Maryland was one of the first universities in the country to institute a drug-testing program, and the first to initiate a formal drug-testing policy.

The wheels on a plan to renovate Byrd Stadium are in motion, a blueprint that includes the addition of an upper deck, new lavatories, new concession stands and a new press box. And with the construction of permanent lights this summer, the dream that was once night football is now reality.

The prosperity of the non-revenue sports program. The women's lacrosse team is the 1986 national champion, and the women's basketball squad captured the 1986 ACC Tournament. The tennis and soccer teams have made considerable recent progress, and the men's lacrosse team qualified for the 1986 NCAA playoffs for the first time in three seasons.

Although success is easily measured in victories and tournament crowns, it is the swift and objective handling of the key issues that makes Dull, 41, one of the top administrators in college athletics. His selection of Bobby Ross—now considered one of football's master innovators—after an intense search for a successor to Jerry Claiborne in January, 1982, has since received wide critical and public acclaim.

Through Ross' hiring, creative marketing strategies and, of course, on-field success, Maryland football has experienced an astounding renaissance: Attendance during Dull's tenure as AD has jumped from 31,100 per game (1981) to 51,546 (1985). That increase of 20,446 translates to a 65 percent rise in just four years, remarkable considering the influx of television markets and local competition.

Dull's vision was also a major factor in the restoration of sound relations between the Maryland program and Baltimore, the state's largest city. Ties between the two had been severed since the mid-60's; Dull's intuition and communicative skills were the major factors in bringing the 1983 Terp-Clemson game to Memorial Stadium, a fledgling tradition that has continued annually.

Not yet 36 when he was approved by the Board of Regents to succeed Kehoe, Dull had already amassed an extensive background encompassing all facets of college athletics. A native of Biglerville, Pa., he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science at Maryland in 1967, then obtained his Doctor of Laws from the Maryland Law School in 1971. While an undergraduate, Dull set a school record for the javelin throw (251 feet), won the event's 1967 ACC Championship, and placed eighth in both the NCAA and AAU championships.

After passing the Bar Exam in 1971, Dull spent two years practicing law in Baltimore with the Legal Aid Bureau, then took the position with USC in 1973. While with Southern Cal, Dull served as acting director of the university's Washington, D.C. office.

Kehoe hired Dull as an assistant business manager in December, 1975. Over the next 5½ years, he progressed to business manager and assistant athletic director (non-revenue sports) while serving as assistant track coach. And shortly after he hired the former lawyer to oversee ticket sales and athletic expenditures, Kehoe called Dull into his office for a brief meeting. The subject: Ambition.

"He asked me what I wanted to get out of this business," Dull recalls, "and I told him I wouldn't be satisfied until I was sitting on his side of the desk, running the department."

Running it he is.

COACHING STAFF

Robert J. "Bobby" Ross
Head Football Coach
University of Maryland

In four years at Maryland Bobby Ross has won 34 football games, led the Terrapins to four consecutive Bowl games and won three consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championships.

He has won 21 of 22 ACC games and has a 17 game league winning streak with the only loss coming to Clemson 24-22 in 1982, his first year in the ACC. Overall his Terrapins have won 18 of their last 22 games with the four losses coming at the hands of Penn State (twice) Miami and Michigan.

In his first year at Maryland, Ross was accorded ACC and District III "Coach of the Year" honors and was named "National Coach of the Year" by the Washington Touchdown Club.

Ross accepted the head coaching duties at Maryland on January 14, 1982 and less than a year later was celebrating his forty sixth birthday in Hawaii with the Maryland football team while preparing for the initial Aloha Bowl game. With his birthday coming on December 23, he had visited his second bowl with the Terps before celebrating his second birthday at Maryland, this time with a trip to the Florida Citrus Bowl. He then received his third birthday present a day early as the Terps won the 1984 Sun Bowl game 28-27 over Tennessee on December 22 and followed with a 1985 Cherry Bowl win over Syracuse, 35-18, in the Pontiac Silverdome on December 21.

When Director of Athletics Dick Dull selected Ross from a long list of candidates that included many prominent names in collegiate and professional football, even he could not envision the immediate impact Ross would have on the program.

The Kansas City Assistant Coach made the move from the NFL, back into collegiate football, an immediate success as he assembled one of the finest coaching staffs in the collegiate ranks. He selected a staff that is not only qualified in the field of football but are excellent teachers as well. Eight of the nine assistant coaches have advanced degrees.

His first recruiting class, although limited in numbers, produced quality football players despite the late arrival of the head coach and staff. That class included Rick Badanjek, 48 consecutive games played, 49 touchdowns scored and 306 points scored, twice All-ACC Defensive Safety Al Covington and twice All-ACC Defensive Guard Bruce Mesner.

He has developed All-Americans in Quarterback Boomer Esiason, Offensive Tackle J.D. Maarleveld, Offensive Guard Ron Solt, Center Kevin Glover, Linebacker Eric Wilson, and Safety Al Covington.

In his four years at Maryland he has sent Safety Al Covington, Center Kevin Glover, Runningback Willie Joyner, Guard Dave Pacella and Quarterbacks Frank Reich and Stan Gelbaugh to the Hula Bowl. Eight players have been selected for the East-West Shrine game in Quarterback Boomer Esiason, Tight End John Tice, Defensive Back Donald Brown, Tackle Mark Duda, Linebacker Eric Wilson, Fullbacks Dave D'Addio and Rick Badanjek and Wide Receiver Greg Hill. J.D. Maarleveld played in the Japan Bowl with Boomer Esiason, Tackle Pete Koch and Willie Joyner named to the Blue-Gray game. The senior Bowl has selected seven Ross products including three quarterbacks in Esiason, Reich and Gelbaugh, John Tice, Dave D'Addio, Ron Solt and Kevin Glover. Thus Ross has had a total of 25 representatives in Post season all-star games despite the fact that the Blue-Gray game has conflicted with the last three Bowl games limiting the Terps to the 1982 game.

Bobby Ross came to Maryland in 1982 a virtual unknown; four years later, he is considered one of college football's master innovators and respected leaders.

His imaginative and exciting offense captivated football fans and players alike. This has resulted in not only increased exposure in the media but has greatly aided recruiting efforts. He has created a renewed enthusiasm for collegiate football in the Washington-Baltimore area as the Terps broke every Maryland attendance record in 1983 and then topped those records in 1985.

Six of the nine largest crowds in Maryland history have attended games coached by Bobby Ross including the three largest. The Terps set attendance records for college football in the state with an average of 51,546 for six home games. The largest crowd to ever see the Terps play was the 105,282 at Michigan in 1985 with the largest home crowd the 62, 350 in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium to see the 1985 Miami game.

Ross came to Maryland well prepared for the head coaching duties having attended and coached at a military school, having served under some of the finest head coaches in the collegiate ranks and having served four years in the National Football League. His five years at The Citadel as the head coach aided him immensely in putting together his outstanding staff.

He has worked with every phase of the game and with universities on every level. He graduated from Virginia Military and served as an assistant coach at the University of Maryland, Virginia Military, William and Mary, Rice and with Kansas City in the NFL.

His duties have included working with the defensive secondary, offensive backfield, linebackers, and specialty teams. He served as the director of recruiting at several schools and as a defensive coordinator.

Ross immediately established a rapport with the members of the football team at Maryland, establishing himself as a disciplinarian but one who treats every player as an individual. He impressed upon them the importance of their classroom work and captivated them with his football philosophy. He has demonstrated his ability to communicate with and motivate young men both on and off the field.

This was especially evident in his first and third years with the Terps. His first game in Byrd Stadium followed a pair of tough road losses to Penn State and West Virginia but the Terps went on to an 8-3 record and a trip to the initial Aloha Bowl.

In 1984 the Terps entered the season with a young team and again were 0-2 with several injured players on the sidelines. The youngsters responded by winning nine of the next ten games, losing only a 25-24 decision to Penn State and won the Sun Bowl Championship. Enroute to the Sun Bowl title the Terps trailed Miami 31-0 at halftime and then engineered the greatest comeback in NCAA Division I history with the 42-40 win. In the Sun Bowl the Terps trailed Tennessee 21-0 at the half but came back to win 28-27.

Ross credits his college coach John McKenna with being the major influence on his coaching career but says he learned a little from each coach he worked with. The major things he picked up in the NFL were an appreciation for the passing game and specialty teams. He does not hesitate to put the football in the air and expresses a desire for basically a 50/50 ratio between the run and pass. After the 0-2 start in 1984 the team achieved that mark in the next ten games. Over the ten games (won 9 lost 1) the Terps passed for 2,390 yards and rushed for 2,390 yards. In the two losses they rushed for 147 and passed for 413 yards. In 12 games in 1985 his Terps rushed for 2,283 yards and 22 touchdowns and passed for 2,698 with 17 touchdowns.

Ross earned a reputation at The Citadel as a man of detail and organization and was always accessible. He has impressed everyone in those areas since arriving in College Park. He has been accessible to the media, alumni, and fans alike. He has covered the state from border to border as well as the neighboring areas on speaking engagements and has participated in numerous clinics. It was the media who voted him ACC coaching honors in 1982 and the coaches who voted him All-District honors.

Ross had impressed Director of Athletics Dick Dull with his outlook on Intercollegiate Athletics, his organizational ability, his views on recruiting, classroom work and all phases of his coaching ability. He has since convinced everyone associated with collegiate football that he is not only a winner but a credit to intercollegiate sports.

Since arriving at Maryland his Terrapins have led the ACC in scoring and rushing defense (1982), total offense, passing offense and scoring offense in 1984, total offense, scoring, total defense and rushing defense in 1985. They have also won three consecutive ACC team championships. He developed Maryland's all-time passer in Boomer Esiason and then had Stan Gelbaugh break most of Boomer's season records for passing. He also has coached the schools all-time scorer Rick Badanjek and broke all home attendance records for the Terrapins in 1983 and again in 1985. He also coached Maryland's all-time placekicker in Jess Atkinson and all-time receiver in Greg Hill.

His first Maryland team, 32.1 points a game, was the highest scoring team in the ACC since 1972 and only three league scoring champions ever scored more in the 33 years of the ACC. His third team averaged 32.0 points a game to lead the league and the 1985 team also captured the scoring title with 26.5 points a game. For the four years the Terps have averaged 29.3 points a game over the 44 regular season games. His four bowl teams have averaged 26.5 points in their four games

In his first year at Maryland attendance jumped an average of 8,225 a game over the previous year and increased another 7,078 in the second year for the games at home. In 1985 the record average of 51,546 for six home games, an increase of 20,446 over the 1981 attendance figure.

Ross was quite familiar with the Maryland football program as he is a native of nearby Richmond, Virginia, attending college in Lexington, Virginia, coached in Lexington and Williamsburg, Virginia as well as Richmond and Colonial Heights, Virginia. He also served on Jerry Claiborne's staff at Maryland in 1972. He left Maryland to assume the head coaching duties at The Citadel in 1973 where he remained five years before moving on to the NFL.

Ross served one tour of duty in the U.S. Army as a First Lieutenant following graduation from Virginia Military with a degree in English and History. He married Alice Bucker of Richmond and they have five children. Chris, a graduate of the Air Force Academy, is now serving in the Air Force. Mary Catherine is a student at Maryland and Teresa is a student at Loyola College in Baltimore where she plays on the women's basketball team. Kevin attends the Naval Academy in Annapolis and is a runner on the Navy track team. Robbie is the youngest.

Ross has led the Terps to ACC dominance in a short time: His teams have won 17 straight conference games, three consecutive league titles and 21 of 22 ACC games since 1982.

Assistant Coaches

James C. Cavanaugh (William & Mary '70)
Running Backs

An honorable mention All America wide receiver under Ross (then an assistant) at William & Mary, Jim Cavanaugh is one of seven assistants who joined Ross when he assumed control of the Terp program in 1982. Cavanaugh came to College Park from Atlantic Coast Conference rival Virginia, where he coached wide receivers under Dick Bestwick in 1981.

Cavanaugh's college coaching career commenced in 1972, when he served as a graduate assistant to Lou Holtz at N.C.State. After obtaining his Master's Degree in Education, Cavanaugh moved to VMI, where he coached wide receivers in 1974 and 1975 and running backs in 1976 for Bob Thalman.In 1977, Cavanaugh returned to N.C. State, where he coached receivers for two seasons for Bo Rein.

Cavanaugh continued his swift climb in 1979, accepting the job as offensive coordinator at Marshall (under Sonny Randle). He stayed at the West Virginia-based school until taking the Virginia assistant's job. While at William & Mary, he caught 117 passes for 1,600 yards from 1967-69 and was an All Southern Conference selection.

Cavanaugh was born in Queens, N.Y. on Aug. 4, 1948. His wife, Marsha, is a graduate of Mississippi University for Women and a native of Atlanta. They have two children, Ryan and Lauren.

George Foussekis (Virginia Tech '68)
Assistant Head Coach for Defense
Inside Linebackers

The only Terp assistant with continuous service since the Jerry Claiborne era, George Foussekis begins his 15th season with Maryland and his fifth as assistant head coach.

A three-time All America at Virginia Tech, Foussekis was signed by the Denver Broncos in 1968. He began coaching in 1969 at his alma mater, where he supervised the defensive line. In 1971, Foussekis replaced Ross as defensive coordinator at William & Mary, then joined Ross at Maryland a year later.

With Ross handling the linebackers and Foussekis overseeing the defensive line under Claiborne, the pair of assistants installed the wide-tackle six defense, a formation/philosophy that has become a trademark of Maryland football. In his 14 years at Maryland, Foussekis has specialized at recruiting in his native Virginia. Four of those recruits went on to play in the NFL: tight end Walter White; defensive back Lloyd Burruss; running back Steve Atkins and linebacker Eric Wilson, a Foussekis pupil.

Born in Charlottesville on April 28, 1946, Foussekis received his Master's Degree in Education from Bowie State College. He is single.

Ralph Friedgen (Maryland '69)
Offensive coordinator/offensive line

The only full-time assistant to obtain his undergraduate degree at Maryland, Ralph Friedgen assumed a dual role for the Terp program in 1982, when Ross hired him to handle the offense and the interior line.

An All-ACC Academic selection in 1967 and 1968, Friedgen received his Master's Degree at Maryland while serving as a grad assistant to Jerry Claiborne in 1972. Ross hired him to handle the defensive line at The Citadel one year later, a job he held until 1977, when Ross moved Friedgen to the offensive line and made him offensive coordinator.

Ross left the Citadel to coach at Kansas City in the NFL after the 1977 season, but Friedgen remained as offensive coordinator and assumed responsibilities as administrative assistant to new head coach Art Baker. In 1980, Friedgen took a similar position at William & Mary, and in 1981 took the same job at Murray State under Frank Beamer.

A two-time winner of the George C. Cook award, given annually to the Maryland player with the highest scholastic average, Friedgen was born April 4, 1947 in Harrison, N.Y.— the same school that produced Terp All America defensive tackle candidate Bruce Mesner. His wife, Gloria, is a graduate of Cortland State. They have two daughters: Kelly and Krisi.

Joseph J. Krivak (Syracuse '57)
Quarterbacks and Wide Receivers

An assistant at Maryland under Jerry Claiborne from 1974-76, Joe Krivak returned to the Terrapins with Ross in 1982after five years at the Naval Academy, where he coached quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A graduate of Syracuse, where he also received his Master's Degree (1962), Krivak earned three letters as a linebacker, guard and center for the Orangemen and lettered three times in baseball. His college coaching career began at Syracuse in 1969, where he coached tight ends and wide receivers until accepting the same position at Maryland under Claiborne.

Krivak moved on to an expanded role at Navy in 1977, where he served as an assistant for current Virginia coach George Welsh. Ross lured Krivak back to College Park five years ago: During his two tenures with the Terps (seven total seasons), Maryland has gone 62-21-1, won six ACC championships and appeared in seven bowl games.

In his five years at Navy, the Midshipmen were 36-21-1 and played in three bowls. Thus, Krivak's credentials as a successful assistant are outstanding: Ten bowl appearances in 12 years, a 98-42-2 record and a .700 winning percentage.

Krivak had established a tradition of winning early in his coaching career. As head football coach at Madonna High (Weirton, W.Va.) during the 60's, his teams won 50 of 76 games, a state championship and two Ohio Valley titles in eight years. He also coached the Madonna basketball team, leading the squad to a state title and to victories in 66 percent of all games over five years.

Born in Central City, Pa., on March 20, 1935, Krivak and wife Jean have three sons: Edward, John, and Jeff. Edward and John were starters on Bowie State's 1981 championship baseball team. Edward played third base and later attended Maryland; John played shortstop on a Bowie team that won 44 straight games, and attended Richmond.

Jeffrey Mann (William & Mary '71)
Special teams

A Baltimore native who earned his Master's Degree from Towson State in January, 1982, Jeff Mann is another one of Ross' original coaching staff at Maryland.

Prior to accepting the job as coach of special teams, Mann had managed the Metro Nautilus Fitness center in Dundalk, Md. since 1980.

In addition to his Master's in Secondary Education with emphasis in Athletic Administration, Mann also coached at Towson State for one year (1979). He has an extensive background as a high school coach, with nine years of experience in football, wrestling, lacrosse and track.

Mann played football and lacrosse at Loyola High, then participated in both sports at William & Mary and played in the 1970 Tangerine Bowl. After completing his undergraduate work, Mann taught and coached at Stratford Junior High (Arlington, Va.), then spent seven years teaching and coaching in the Baltimore metropolitan area.

Born May 15, 1949, Mann and his wife, Karen, have two daughters: Stacy and Molly.

Dennis M. Murphy
Defensive guards

A former tight end/defensive end at Notre Dame and an 18-year veteran of the college coaching ranks, Denny Murphy is entering his fifth season with Ross and Maryland—the longest he's remained at one school since he left the Fighting Irish staff back in 1974.

Murphy lettered three times at Notre Dame, concluding his career with an appearance in the North-South Shrine Game. He was signed by the Los Angeles Rams but released before the 1963 season, then served five years as a Naval Flight Officer. While with the Navy, he was awarded five Air Medals for combat support missions while on deployment in Southeast Asia.

In 1969, Murphy joined Ara Parseghian as a graduate assistant, coaching the freshman team and junior varsity at Notre Dame while Pursuing his Master's Degree. He moved on to Colgate in 1975 as offensive line coach, then became defensive coordinator at Holy Cross in 1976.

Murphy accepted the position as offensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan in 1978, where he remained until Ross offered him a spot on his Maryland coaching staff in 1982. Born in Endicott, N.Y. on Oct. 22, 1940, he and his wife Cindy have four children: Michelle, Kristen, Lisa and Kevin.

Richard Portee (Eastern Illinois '65)
Outside linebackers/defensive ends

With a versatile background in athletic administration and coaching experience on both sides of the football, Dick Portee begins his fifth season at Maryland. As outside linebacker coach, Portee is responsible for an important part of the wide tackle six defense, particularly against teams with option quarterbacks and outside running strength.

Another member of Ross' original Terp coaching staff, Portee came to College Park from Cornell, where he served in multiple capacities from 1977-81. While at Cornell, Portee coached the secondary, organized the recruiting program, oversaw eligibility, handled housing requirements and all film exchanges and acted as a liaison for the football program to Minority Educational Affairs.

A graduate of Eastern Illinois (Health and Physical Science) with a similar Master's Degree from Illinois State, Portee began his college coaching career at ISU in 1972, when he coached the offensive backfield and wide receivers. He also served as assistant athletic director from 1972-74, with primary focus on eligibility, rule interpretation and financial aid.

Prior to obtaining his Master's, Portee was a physical education instructor/freshman football coach at ISU and a teacher at Eisenhower High (Decatur, Ill.). A four year letterman in football at Eastern Illinois, Portee was an All-Conference defensive back in 1963. Born on April 20, 1942, he and his wife Dorothy have two sons: Danny and Ryan.

Kurt Van Valkenburgh
Defensive tackles

The newest member of the Maryland football staff and the first full-time assistant hired since Ross named his original staff in 1982, Kurt Van Valkenburgh joined the terps this spring, when Gib Romaine moved from coaching to athletic administration.

A graduate of Springfield (Mass.) College with a Master's Degree in Education, Van Valkenburgh comes to College Park after four years at Vanderbilt, where he served as defensive coordinator, linebacker coach and secondary coach. One of Van Valkenburgh's prize pupils was defensive back Leonard Coleman, who set a school record for career interceptions and was a first-round pick in the 1984 NFL Draft.

After obtaining his Master's at SUNY-Albany in 1974, Van Valkenburgh began his coaching career there that fall as linebacker coach. He moved on to Union (N.Y.) College in 1977, where he spent one season as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

That same year, Van Valkenburgh accepted the secondary coach job at Colgate, where he stayed for four years before taking a similar position at Virginia (1981). The following season, he took the job at Vanderbilt.

Born April 13, 1949 in Schenectady, N.Y., Van Valkenburgh and wife Marilyn have three children: Heather, Brock and Melissa.

Greg Williams (N.C. State '68)
Secondary

Another member of Ross' original staff at Maryland, Greg Williams came to Maryland in 1982 from LSU, where he had been secondary coach and defensive coordinator.

Williams was a three year letterman defensive back at N.C. State, and began his coaching career at Youngstown State in 1969. In 1971, he moved on to Tulsa, where he coached the secondary for four years . In 1974, Williams accepted the job as defensive coordinator at West Virginia, where he doubled as secondary coach for two seasons.

Williams made one more stop—at Texas Christian, where he was offensive coordinator and offensive backfield coach in 1976 and 1977—before returning to his alma mater for one season. In 1979, Williams went to LSU, where he spent three seasons.

Born Oct. 10, 1946 in Danville, Pa., Williams and wife Mary Anne have two daughters: Shelly and Beth.

For the first time since 1978 the Terrapins open the season without a quarterback who has earned a letter at the position. The 1978 team did have a senior in Tim O'Hare who had thrown a total of five passes the previous year. O'Hare took the Terps to a 9-2 season and a Sun Bowl berth. The 1986 Terrapins have Dan Henning who lettered as a redshirt sophomore while holding for placements, but has not taken a snap from under center. His only official passing attempt came off a field goal formation. Drew Komlo has worked with the Maryland offense for two years and Neil O'Donnell is entering his second year. "We need to settle on a starting quarterback quickly in order to prepare for the September One opener at Pittsburgh," says Bobby Ross.

Our losses from the 1985 squad were high in number and also high in quality. We must replace 11 starters. Ten of those 11 were in pro football camps this fall.

"Our obvious strengths are at running back, the defensive line, receivers and at linebacker," says Ross. "While our apparent weaknesses are lack of depth and experience in the offensive line, and inexperience at quarterback and in the secondary."

BY POSITION

OFFENSE—

QUARTERBACK—"We have three candidates to open the season," says Ross. "They are Junior Dan Henning, Sophomore Drew Komlo and Redshirt Freshman Neil O'Donnell. Henning and Komlo alternated with the first unit throughout most of spring practice. Robert Nutile is also a redshirt freshman candidate.

RUNNING BACK "I feel good about our running back situation where we have Alvin Blount, Tommy Neal, and Mike Anderson returning and several youngsters behind them who can play," says Ross. Blount is a preseason All-ACC choice with impressive statistics and Neal had outstanding statistics before suffering an injury and missing nearly half of the 1985 season. Anderson letterd in his first year on the team. The youngsters include Bren Lowery and Carl Morton.

FULLBACK Leading scorer Rick Badanjek is gone but Stephon Scriber returns as a two year letterman senior. Tommy Neal can also run from fullback. Dennis Spinelli had a fine spring practice and Keith Bullock returns as a letterman. Richard Shure also returns as a letterman.

WIDE RECEIVERS—"We moved "Ziz" Abdur-Ra'oof to the split end spot so we can get both he and James Milling in the game at the same time," says Ross. While alternating at the same position they caught 61 passes for 1,086 yards last fall. "Ziz" has a letterman backing him up in Vernon Joines while Milling has letterman Sean Sullivan and Junior John Bonato as his backups.

Junior wide receiver Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof enters 1986 with receptions in 22 straight regular season games. He has caught 60 passes and averaged 18.5 yards per catch during that 22-game span.

TIGHT END—"We expect Ferrell Edmunds to play well," says Ross. Edmunds is a two year letterman junior who had 21 receptions and four touchdowns last fall. Redshirt Freshman Blaine Rose is his backup along with Sophomore Dolph Tokarczyk, Freshman Derek Jennings and Community College transfer Walter Kane.

CENTER—"We moved Dave Amend to guard in the spring and that leaves us three centers. Any one of the three could start this fall. Bill Hughes, John Rugg and Mark Rothrock are all three capable of starting," says Ross. Hughes and Rugg are lettermen with Hughes having also lettered at tackle.

GUARDS—"Dave Amend is the starter on the right side while either Robert Sterling or Bill Hughes could start on the left side," says Ross. Amend made the move from center in the spring where he lettered last fall and has also lettered on defense. Hughes could play either guard or center. Joe Giuliano moved over from defense and along with Richard Nelson, Rich Salgado and Pete McDaniel are competing for the backup spots.

TACKLES—"John Sorna is a two year letterman and Ben Jefferson continues to improve," says Ross. Jefferson lettered last fall as a redshirt freshman and is backed up on the left side by Mark Agent. Sorna is backed up by Ed Walsh and Mark Hofland. Jefferson is the biggest at 6-8½ and 322 pounds while Hofland is the smallest at 6-6½ and 255.

DEFENSE—"We go into the season feeling better about this unit than we have in any of the previous four years," says Ross. "We have three All-ACC selections returning and Bruce Mesner is one of the finest defensive lineman in the nation." Chuck Faucette and Keeta Covington are the other All-ACC selections.

GUARD—"Bruce Mesner gives us an excellent pass rush and along with Bob Arnold a fine pair of starters," says Ross. Tommy Parker and Neal Sampson are both lettermen and both have started in the past. The four have earned a total of nine letters. Sampson has played both sides. Mark Pizzo and Mike Kiselak are both redshirt freshmen.

TACKLES—"We have good experience at tackle" says Ross. "We have three lettermen on the right side and a pair on the left side". The five lettermen have earned a total of eight letters. The expected starters are Ted Chapman and Warren Powers. Chapman is backed up on the left by Robert Klein, Redshirt Freshman Tony Franciscus and James Wilson. On the right Duane Dunham has starting experience and Wayne Brunson is also a letterman.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS—"Chuck Faucette, Richie Petitbon and Kevin Walker are among the best" says Ross. "We consider all three starters". Faucette was an All-ACC selection last fall. Other lettermen are Jon

Two major reasons why Maryland's linebacking corps is among the nation's best are juniors Richie Petitbon (left) and Kevin Walker. Petitbon had 101 tackles and three fumble recoveries as a sophomore; Walker had 50 tackles in limited action in 1985 after being moved from fullback, where he played as a Freshman.

Sabrowski, Matt D'Amico and Doug Dragan. Nick Marchetti is a Redshirt Sophomore who will play.

HALFBACKS—"Keeta Covington is the anchor of our secondary" says Ross. "We have the best overall speed we have had in the secondary. We have some fine young talent". Lewis Askew is the other starter with lettermen Chad Sydnor and Irvin Smith the backups. Charles Gassaway had a fine spring also in the secondary.

SAFETY—"J. B. Brown is the quickest safety we have had" says Ross. Brown lettered as a freshman last fall and is backed up by letterman Danny Swingle and Leon Bray.

KICKING GAME—"We have competition at both kicking positions and should be improved off experience alone" says Ross. "All of the kickers return as does Keeta Covington handling the returns". Dan Plocki was 11 for 13 on field goals last fall and perfect on 20 PAT's. Ramon Paredes was three for seven and 13 for 13. Darryl Wright has punted for two years. Covington led the ACC in punt returns in 1984 and kickoff returns in '85.

Senior Stephon Scriber, who gained 171 yards on 42 carries in 1985, will be counted on to help ease the loss of Rick Badanjek at fullback.

Despite limited playing time last season, junior wide receiver James Milling caught 28 passes for 441 yards. His role will expand in 1986, as coaches have moved "Ziz" Ra'oof to split end and made Milling the starting flanker.

1985 IN REVIEW

Junior tight end Ferrell Edmunds was an honorable mention All-American (Associated Press) in 1985, catching 21 passes for 314 yards and four touchdowns, with all four TD's coming in the final three games.

The Maryland Terrapins won their third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference championship and posted their second straight 9-3 season in 1985, capping the year with a 35-18 victory over Syracuse in the second-annual Cherry Bowl. The Cherry Bowl triumph was also the second straight postseason victory for the Terps and head coach Bobby Ross, who has gone 8-3 in each of his four regular seasons at Maryland.

J. D. Maarleveld was named a Kodak All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and six Terrapins were named to the All-ACC team. Four of the six all-league selections were on the defensive unit with Bruce Mesner and Al Covington making the team for the second consecutive year. Keeta Covington joined his brother Al on the all-league team along with Linebacker Chuck Faucette. Maarleveld and Guard Len Lynch were on the offensive unit.

Quarterback Stan Gelbaugh grabbed a pair of passing records from Boomer Esiason with his 2,475 yards passing for the season and 2,385 yards total offense.

All three Maryland losses were at the hands of top five teams as they dropped a two point decision to Penn State at home, a 29-22 decision to Miami in Baltimore and lost to Michigan before 105,282 in Ann Arbor.

The bid from the Cherry Bowl gave Ross four consecutive bowl trips in his four years at Maryland and the Terrapin's eleventh bowl trip in the last thirteen years.

PENN STATE (Byrd Stadium, Sept. 7) Penn State intercepted a Stan Gelbaugh pass on the second play of the game and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown. The Nittany Lions went on to a 17-0 lead 2:56 into the second quarter. Ramon Paredes then kicked a 22 yard field goal and Rick Badanjek scored on an eight yard run and it was 17-10 at the half. Chuck Faucette intercepted a Penn State pass 1:28 into the third quarter and five plays later Badanjek scored his second touchdown of the game on a five yard run. Dan Henning hit Chris Knight with a two point pass and Maryland had taken a 18-17 lead. Penn State came back with a 46 yard field goal with 9:46 remaining in the third quarter for the final 20-18 score. Maryland threatened three times in the fourth quarter but missed a 34 yard field goal after driving to the Penn State 12 and a 51 yard attempt (both just wide) after driving to the 33. Maryland's last drive carried to the Penn State 30 where a pass was then dropped on the nine and a completion was fumbled on the 24 with 38 seconds remaining. Penn State has scored only a field goal in the last 42 minutes of the game. Maryland had controlled the ball for 36 minutes of the game and outgained the Nittany Lions 342 to 249 yards but Penn State had its 21st consecutive win over the Terps and went on to become the nation's top ranked team.

BOSTON COLLEGE (Sullivan Stadium, Sept. 14) Ramon Paredes kicked a 32 yard field goal and Tommy Neal scored on a two yard run to give the Terps a 10-0 lead over Boston College. After a 10-7 half-time lead the Terps outscored Boston College 21-6 in the second half for the 31-13 win. Alvin Blount scored on a four yard run, Eric Holder on a 10 yard pass from Stan Gelbaugh and Rick Badanjek on a one yard run. Scott Tye recovered a pair of fumbles for the Terps including one on the BC one yard line setting up the final score. The Terps had the ball nine minutes longer than BC, recovered three Eagle fumbles and had a pair of interceptions by Chuck Faucette and Joe Bailey.

All-American and Outland Trophy candidate Bruce Mesner was an All-ACC selection at defensive guard for the second straight season. He had 113 tackles, 12 quarterback sacks and two fumble recoveries as a junior in 1985.

WEST VIRGINIA (Byrd Stadium, Sept. 21) The Terps outgained the Mountaineers 518 yards to 271 enroute to a 28-0 win. West Virginia did not get inside the Maryland 30 until the final play of the game when a pass carried to the Maryland four. The Mountaineers picked up 76 yards on their last five plays in the game in their only drive over 39 yards. Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof caught five passes for 90 yards including an 11 yard touchdown. Tommy Neal, who played only one play in the Penn State opener with an injury, carried 15 times for 90 yards and scored on runs of three and five yards. Sean Sullivan added a 23 yard touchdown reception for the Terps. Maryland had 22 more plays than the Mountaineers and controlled the ball for nearly 36 minutes of the game. Bruce Mesner had three quarterback sacks for the Terps in the national telecast by TBS.

MICHIGAN (Michigan Stadium, Sept. 28) Michigan handed the Terps their first shutout since 1979 with a 20-0 win before 105,282 in Ann Arbor. The Wolverines kicked a 34 yard field goal in the first quarter while Maryland missed a 31 yard attempt in the second quarter. Michigan scored a pair of touchdowns on a ten yard pass in the first quarter and three yard pass in the third quarter. A 25 yard field goal completed the scoring. Maryland drove to the 13 in the first quarter, missed the field goal, to the 29 in the third but failed on fourth down and to the six in the third quarter but had a pass intercepted in the end zone. The Terps were on the Michigan 11 when the game ended. Four interceptions and a fumble hampered the Maryland offense. Michigan did not score on the ground as the Terps stopped them after a first down on the one and gave up one score on a three yard pass after a first down on the two. Michigan went on to become the nation's fifth ranked team.

A healthy Tommy Neal is a good Tommy Neal: The senior running back has gained 1,024 yards and averaged 5.7 yards per carry in three years at Maryland, and gained 362 yards (62 carries) despite playing just five full games in 1985.

Walk-on placekicker Dan Plocki gave the Terps a big lift in the second half of 1985: He hit 11 of 13 field goal attempts and all 20 extra points in six games, including six straight field goals in the final three games.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE (Carter Finley Stadium, Oct. 5) Maryland scored 14 points in 67 seconds and topped North Carolina State 31-17 in their Atlantic Coast Conference opener. The Wolfpack jumped into a 10-0 lead in the second quarter but Maryland came up with a field goal and a defensive play by Chuck Faucette seemed to inspire the offense. Faucette, from his linebacker position came over the top himself and hit a driving Mike Miller in mid-air on a first and goal at the one. Faucette knocked the ball loose and Keeta Covington recovered it on the one. Stan Gelbaugh then took the Terps 99 yards in 1:42 for a 10-10 tie at the half, hitting Eric Holder with a 17 yard pass for the score. Maryland then drove 74 yards to open the second half with Rick Badanjek scoring from the one. The Wolfpack tied the score 17-17 with 10:46 remaining in the game but Maryland scored on a four yard run by Alvin Blount and 22 seconds later Bruce Mesner knocked the ball loose from the State quarterback, Maryland's ninth sack, and Scott Tyc recovered on the 23. Stan Gelbaugh scored on a 19 yard run and the Terps had their opening ACC win.

WAKE FOREST (Groves Stadium, Oct. 19) Walk-on Freshman Dan Plocki made his first appearance for the Terps and kicked four field goals as Maryland defeated Wake Forest 26-3. Stan Gelbaugh passed for 275 yards and hit Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof with touchdown passes of 39 and 42 yards. Abdur-Ra'oof had 116 yards on four receptions in the game. The Wake Forest field goal came after the Terps had blocked a 42 yard attempt but were offsides and the resulting 38 yard attempt was good. The only other Wake Forest threat came in the fourth quarter but a fourth down from the 24 failed. Plocki had field goals of 26, 45, 24 and 33 yards after missing his first collegiate attempt from 48 yards.

DUKE (Byrd Stadium, Oct. 26) Maryland rolled up 501 yards, scored 33 second half points and defeated Duke 40-10. The Terrapins had 314 yards passing and three touchdown passes from Stan Gelbaugh with Azizuddin Abdur-Ra'oof catching four passes for 96 yards. Rick Badanjek scored a pair of touchdowns on two yard runs and Alvin Blount caught a two yard pass for a score. Eric Holder had a 12 yard touchdown reception. Dan Plocki hit his fifth consecutive field goal with a 21 yarder and Kevin Walker's tackle in the end zone gave the Terps a safety. The Terps scored 23 points in a 5:02 span in the fourth quarter.

NORTH CAROLINA (Byrd Stadium, Nov. 2) Maryland won a 28-10 decision from North Carolina before a regional television audience and Homecoming crowd. The Terps held the Tar Heels to 199 yards total offense and had six quarterback sacks in the game. Maryland's Bob Arnold intercepted a pass on the first play of the game and the Tar Heels only crossed midfield once in the first half but wound up back on the 50 on that series. The Tar Heels kicked a 43 yard field goal in the third quarter and scored on a 25 yard drive following an interception. They drove to the Maryland 40 in the fourth quarter but a 16 yard sack left them back on their own 44. Rick Badanjek scored on three two yard runs after scoring four touchdowns against North Carolina last year. Tight End Chris Knight scored on a two yard pass from Stan Gelbaugh. Three Maryland interceptions included one by Freshman J. B. Brown that he returned 33 yards.

Seven starters—and three All-ACC selections—return from a Maryland defense that was superb in 1985. The Terps led the conference in rushing defense and total defense, had 50 quarterback sacks, and didn't allow a rushing touchdown until nine games into the season.

MIAMI (Memorial Stadium, Baltimore, Nov. 9) Maryland dropped a 29-22 decision to Miami after leading 22-20 in the fourth quarter. Miami went on to be the nation's fourth ranked team and gained revenge for the 42-40 loss to Maryland in Miami last year. The Terps led 13-0 on a four yard pass from Stan Gelbaugh to Ferrell Edmunds and a pair of Dan Plocki field goals. With the score tied 13-13 Rick Badanjek scored on a two yard run and the Terps picked up a safety off an illegally kicked ball in the end zone by Miami, for a 22-13 lead. Miami then returned a punt 74 yards and followed with a 20 yard field goal for a 23-22 lead. Miami with two one yard scoring runs was the first team to score a touchdown rushing on Maryland in 1985. Keeta Covington had a 34 yard interception return in the game and Plocki was two for two on field goals.

CLEMSON (Memorial Stadium, Nov. 16) Maryland clinched a tie for the ACC Championship in "Death Valley" with a 34-31 win over the Clemson Tigers. It was the sixteenth consecutive ACC win by Coach Bobby Ross and the Terrapins. Clemson blocked a punt in the first quarter and ran it in for a touchdown and 10-0 lead. Maryland then drove 80 yards with Alvin Blount scoring from two yards. Stan Gelbaugh opened the second quarter with a 78 yard drive including a 50 yard touchdown pass to Eric Holder and 14-10 led. Clemson responded with an 80 yard drive (17-14) and then blocked another punt setting up a 24 yard drive and 24-14 lead. QUARTERBACK SACKS—Maryland's wide tackle six defense recorded 50 sacks in 11 games with All-ACC defensive guard Bruce Mesner leading the way. Mesner had 12 sacks and Tackle Scott Tye had 7½. Outside Linebacker and Co-Captain Scott Schankweiler had six sacks.

The 50 sacks was the second highest recorded by the Terrapins. The 1978 team recorded a school record 53. The 1975 team also had 50 and the Randy White-led 1974 team had 49. The single game high of nine this fall came at North Carolina State.

Mesner's 12 sacks rank second to the 13 by Mark Duda in 1982 and by Bruce Palmer in 1978. Randy White had 12 for the 1974 team and Charles Johnson 12 for the 1978 team.

THE DEFENSE did not give up a touchdown rushing in the first eight games of the season but then allowed eight in the last three games. Miami scored twice on one yard runs and Clemson scored on runs of two, five and five yards. Virginia added three on runs of one, four and four yards.

In the past few years, milestones in the University's progress have included two Pulitzer Prizes for faculty members and important developments in medical research and treatment, in biotechnology, and in many other areas, among them:

- The National Science Foundation awarded the College Park campus a $16 million grant to establish a Systems Research Center, one of six national centers of excellence in engineering.
- The University's Center of Marine Biotechnology, located in Baltimore, has received a $6.695 million, five-year federal grant.
- The U.S. Department of Education awarded the College of Education a $6.5 million, five-year grant to establish a Center for Research on Postsecondary Education Management and Governance.
- Philanthropic support for academic programs at the University has reached a new high of over $12 million annually.
